

As many of you know, this website was originated and designed by Bob Shaw, the first Webmaster extraordinaire.

After many years of service he reluctantly passed it on to me. In just two weeks I managed to largely demolish it. But with Bob's help and guidance it is back up and running and this time I hope to keep it going. Thank you Bob for your many years as Webmaster. You made it look so easy. It is not.

Bart